

Hessian Nazi Militia

The House of Hesse are a military bloodline of the Holy Roman Empire closely allied with the House of Habsburg and British Crown and they manage the Rockefeller which have ancestry from the region of Hesse. The Hesse princes are extremely murderous Nazis. Landgrave Donatus of Hesse is a global commander of Nazi gang stalking cults. The Hesse family own the Iron Horsemen motorcycle gang which were founded in Cincinnati. Cincinnati has a large German-American population. The first German Methodist church was established in Cincinnati. Hest in old Germanic-Danish means horse. The House of Hesse also own the Hessian motorcycle gang in California. Rudolf Hess was a relative of the House of Hesse and Deputy Fuhrer of the Nazi Party. Philipp the Landgrave of Hesse was a member of the Nazi Party. Christoph Ernst August of Hesse was a member of the Nazi SS. Mayer Amschel Rothschild was the founder of the Rothschild banking dynasty and employed through the House of Hesse and Elector William I of Hesse. Royalty and nobility ruled and owned governments. They lived in palaces with vaults filled with gold. They employed bankers and businessmen which were and are usually fake Israelites like the Rothschilds who they would loan out gold to so they could manage proxy banks for them. When people get fed up with oppressive governments and corruption the blame is mostly shifted onto bankers which are really serving the royal and noble families. Christian royalty and their Jewish bankers are both criminals. Royalty use their power in government to protect the bankers and the bankers use wealth to finance protection for monarchs or today politicians through pay offs. Today Benjamin de Rothschild works as a banker for the House of Habsburg and House of Hesse. Horst Paulmann is worth about 3 billion and is from Kassel, Hesse. Paulmann is the founder, CEO, and chairman of Cencosud a South American retail company. The House of Hesse originated from the House of Brabant which was allied with the House of Habsburg's hidden ancestors from the Carolingian-Ottonian Dynasty which ruled as Kings of Lothringen and Dukes of Lorraine which is why the House of Habsburg often took the name Otto and use the name Habsburg-Lorraine. The House of Hesse have a close alliance with the nobles of Westphalia like the Salm family which has been a heavily militant region of Germany. The Hesses employed soldiers from Westphalia as their mercenaries. The Rodham and Eppstein families were also nobles under the House of Hesse. Rodham was Rodheim. This is why the Clintons and Jeffrey Epstein were close friends. The Rothschilds were first employed by the Hesses and that is also why the Rothschilds are close friends with the Clintons.

The House of Hesse's more ancient ancestry is somewhat connected with the Aesti clan of Estonia with the Esterhazy, Este, and Essen families. The Aesti clan was located in the modern day regions of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. The Essen family were located in Estonia and worked with the Russian military and also established themselves as a Swedish nobility after Sweden conquered Estonia. Peter Kirillovich Essen and Ivan Essen were Russian military generals. Hans Henric von Essen was a high level military leader working for the Swedish Crown and his son Baron Fredrik von Essen was a high level Swedish politician. Baron Alexander von Essen is a current member of this family and owns a vineyard in South Africa. Gustaf Douglas is a Swedish billionaire and his wife is Elisabeth von Essen. Thomas Von Essen was FDNY Commissioner during 9/11, a Commander of the Order of the British Empire, and currently the FEMA Regional Administrator for Region II in New York City. Heinrich Deichmann is a German billionaire with his shoe company headquartered in Essen. The Aesti clan were located in parts of ancient Lithuania. Leon Hess's family was from Lithuania and he founded the Hess Corporation which has about 34 billion in assets. The House of Hesse likely have some shares in Hess Corporation. John B. Hess is the current CEO of Hess. The House of Hesse are covert co-managers of Interpol the international police agency which was taken over by Nazis during WWII. Jurgen Stock is currently Secretary-General of Interpol and was educated at the University of Giessen established by the Hesses and Habsburgs. The House of Hesse are also claimants to the Kingdom of Finland because Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse was elected King of Finland during German occupation which at the time was similar to Germany's takeover of Estonia and Lithuania. The Mountbattens are closely related to the House of Hesse through Princess Victoria of Hesse as the maternal founder of the family. George Mountbatten the 4th Marquess of Milford Haven, Henry David Louis Mountbatten the Earl of Medina, and Lord Ivar Mountbatten are current members of this family. The Mountbattens are a British branch of the House of Hesse.

Hessians were mercenaries from Hesse-Cassel and Hesse-Hanau which were states ruled by the House of Hesse. The Lake City Silent Pills was a group of contract killers communicating through the internet who were covertly employed by the House of Hesse through the Busch beer family and Olin family and the Olin's Lake City Army Ammunitions Plant in Missouri. They are inactive now. Tod Wolters is a US Army general and the Supreme Allied Commander of Europe. The name Wolters derives from the German name Waldhar which means ruler of an army. Hessian soldiers were hired by the British Crown to fight in the American Revolution. Hessian mercenaries also fought on both sides of the War of the Austrian Succession. I believe the House of Hesse are involved with Asgaard which is a German private military company. Essen is a German city in North Rhine-Westphalia. King Zwentibold of Lotharingia and of the Ottonian dynasty established the Essen Abbey with Princess-Abbeesses to govern over the city of Essen. The Hesse family married in with the Abbeesses of Essen with Landgravine Maria Eleonore of Hesse-Rotenburg the mother of Abbess Francisca Christina of Essen. Essen is Habsburg-Hesse territory. The Waldthausens were a wealthy banking and industrial family from Essen. The Krupp family originated from Essen, Germany and they are an industrial family involved with producing steel and armaments. Krupp was a major military armament supplier for the Nazis and used Nazi slave labor. Krupp merged to become ThyssenKrupp which has about 35 billion in assets and the House of Hesse covertly own shares in this company likely through the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach Foundation. Thyssen was another wealthy German family whose companies like Vereinigte Stahlwerke AG worked with the Nazis. The Thyssen family married into the Zichy family of Hungary where the House of Habsburg have ruled. The current head of the Zichy family is Count Claudio Zichy-Thyssen the owner of Thyssen Schachtbau and he is a major landowner in Argentina where the Nazis fled to. Thyssen Schachtbau is an industrial construction company involved with mining and transportation. Hans Heinrich Thyssen-Bornemisza was the father in law of Arch Duke Karl von Habsburg. George Hesse a Jewish relative and agent of the House of Hesse along with Hesse Newman & Co. private bank co-founded Commerzbank which today has over 500 billion in assets under management. Hesse Newman & Co. was purchased in 2009 by Grenke Bank. Weyerhaeuser is a large timber company located in the state of Washington that owns 12 million acres of timberlands in the United States with another 14 million acres in contracts in Canada. Weyerhaeuser was founded by Frederick Weyerhaeuser who was from Hesse, Germany. Today the company has 18 billion in assets.

Landesbank Hessen-Thuringen or Helaba is a German bank in Hesse-Cassel created out of a merger of several older banks in Hesse like Landeskreditkasse zu Kassel. Darmstadt and National Bank was the second largest bank in Germany created out of a merger with the Hesse based Darmstadt Bank for Trade and Industry and the National Bank for Germany. Darmstadt and National Bank was forced to close down creating a banking crisis. It was purchasing its own shares at a higher rate than their worth and gave out more loans than what the bank was worth. This hurt the German economy and helped to give rise to the Nazis and blaming all Jews for what the German princes' corrupt Court Jew bankers did. Prince Wilhelm of Hesse-Philippsthal-Barchfeld was a captain in the Nazi military. Prince Wilhelm received Nazi salutes during his wedding to Princess Marianne. I believe the House of Hesse covertly oversees the BfV German intelligence agency. Heinz Fromm was head of the BfV from 2000-2012 and was previously Secretary of State in the Hessian Ministry of the Interior. Heinz Fromm resigned because he destroyed files on the Neo-Nazi group called the National Socialist Underground. The Rockefeller family originated from the region of Hesse and are really agents of the various German royals and nobles including the Hesses, Sayn-Wittgensteins, Hohenzollerns, and Wied-Neuwieds. Princess Mafalda is a top authority over the Cult of Hestia which is a female cult of women who use motherhood to cover up their evil. Princess Mafalda of Hesse was married to the Italian Count Enrico Marone Cinzano and later married and also divorced Count Ferdinando Brachetti Peretti also of Italy. The House of Hesse has alliances with the Italian nobility and House of Savoy. The grandmother of Donatus and Mafalda was Princess Mafalda of Savoy of Italian royalty. The name Donatus is an Italian name. Landgrave Donatus of Hesse is the head of this family today and an extremely murderous Nazi. Other members include Donatus's wife Countess Floria of Hesse and she is from the Faber-Castell family as well as Prince Philip of Hesse, Princess Elena of Hesse, Princess Mafalda of Hesse, Prince Rainer Christoph Friedrich of Hesse, Princess Irina of Hesse, and Prince Christoph of Hesse.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/House_of_Hesse

The House of Hesse is a European dynasty, directly descended from the House of Brabant. It ruled the region of Hesse, with one branch as prince-electors until 1866, and another branch as grand dukes until 1918.[1]

The Battenberg family are morganatic descendants in the male-line of the House of Hesse, issuing from the marriage of Prince Alexander of Hesse and by Rhine with Countess Julia Hauke who, along with her children and agnatic descendants, were made princes and princesses of Battenberg and Serene Highnesses.[1] The Battenbergs who later settled in England changed that name to Mountbatten after World War I at the behest of George V, who substituted British peerages for their former German princely title.[1]

Prince Donatus of Hesse is a psychopath and a top authority over international Nazis, militaries, and mercenaries. The House of Hesse have a close alliance with the Von Dem Bussche, Hardenberg, Isenberg, Waldeck, Salm, and Cornburg families of Germany which are all militant noble clans. An authority and network appears to be the Black Nobility to the House of Savoy then to the House of Hesse and then to the House of Von Dem Bussche and finally to the Bush family in the United States. That is a network of military authority they often use. The House of Hesse were the Rothschilds first employers and they still covertly employ Baron Benjamin de Rothschild who owns and runs Edmond de Rothschild Group in Switzerland. Prince Donatus works as an economist and manages his the Hesse estate which includes numerous properties. Prince Donatus owns the Iron Horseman motorcycle gang. A few days after I originally exposed the Hesses as the owners of the Iron Horseman I was driving and a biker that had on a German Nazi era motorcycle helmet flew up right behind me and pulled a gun wrapped in a red rag. I slowed down and was getting ready to slam on the breaks and he immediately backed off and then I pulled onto a busy road. I had a Hells Angel park in front of my house a few days after exposing that the House of Windsor own the Hells Angels.

The finances of Hesse-Kassel consequently resembled less those of a small state than those of a large bank. While the Exchequer (Kammerkasse) collected regular revenues from the royal estates and indirect taxes which were then disbursed on regular civil expenditures, the War Chest (Kriegskasse) received revenue not only from the state's property taxes but also from the hiring out of mercenaries and the interest on the Landgrave's investments, which it managed. William's total assets in 1806—adding together the assets of each financial department—stood at more than 46 million gulden (more than £4 million). More than half of this (28.8 million) was held in the form of loans to other German princes, notably the Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz and the Prince of Lippe-Detmold, while a further 4.6 million was invested in English annuities. The fact that his net income after all expenditures was around 900,000 gulden speaks for itself: the contemporary view that he was one of the richest of European “capitalists” was not far wrong. From the point of view of an aspirant banker like Mayer Amschel, William therefore exerted a magnetic attraction. Not only was there money to be made from buying and reselling his English bills; there was also money to be made from placing his immense and constantly growing capital in secure investments. The only problem from Mayer Amschel’s point of view was that other people were already making that money.

Yet, despite the title of senior court agent (Oberhofagent) bestowed on him in 1803, it is important to stress that at this juncture it was not Mayer Amschel so much as William who was the real banker; Rothschild was in many ways more of a stockbroker, catering to his client’s growing preference for bearer bonds as opposed to personal loans.³

https://www.rothschildarchive.org/business/origins_of_the_business/

Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812) laid the foundations on which his five sons and their descendants would build a Europe wide banking empire.

He became a dealer in rare coins and won the patronage of the immensely wealthy Crown Prince Wilhelm I of Hesse (1743-1821), who had also earlier patronised his father. His coin business grew to include a number of princely patrons, and then expanded through the provision of financial services. In 1769, Mayer Amschel gained the title of 'Court Agent', managing the finances of Wilhelm I who became Wilhelm IX, Landgrave of Hesse-Kassel on the death of his father in 1785. Business expanded rapidly following the French Revolution when Rothschild handled payments from Britain for the hire of Hessian mercenaries.

On Thursday, that trail led to Commerzbank of Germany, which agreed to pay nearly $1.5 billion and dismiss some of its employees to resolve an array of charges in the United States. The case, the latest black eye for a giant global bank accused of sending tainted money through the American financial system, closes the book on several investigations into Commerzbank, one of Germany's largest lenders.

The House of Hesse own Castle Fasanerie in Eichenzell, Germany. It is extremely expensive to maintain properties and castles like this. The House of Hesse are extremely wealthy.

Prince Philipp of Hesse holds this bloodline's claim to the title to King of Finland and he is a high level commander over Nazis and militaries as well as the Iron Horseman MC gang. The Epstein and Rodham families were actually nobles under the House of Hesse.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Philip_\(name\))

Philip is a given name, derived from the Greek Φίλιππος (Philippos, lit. "horse-loving" or "fond of horses"[1][2]), from a compound of φίλος (phílos, "dear", "loved", "loving") and ἵππος (hippos, "horse").

Princess Mafalda of Hesse is a Nazi and child murderer who married 3 different Italians including 2 nobles. Her ex husband is Count Ferdinando Brachetti-Peretti and they have 2 sons. The Peretti family were originally a Roman nobility that produced 1 pope and later handed their titles to the Sforza-Cesarini family through marriage. They also married with the Colonna and Orsini families. Prince Mafalda is a top authority of the Cult of Hestia. Hestia was a Greek female deity of hearth and home and the Cult of Hestia are women who use family and motherhood as a shield to cover up their evil.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mafalda_von_Hessen

Mafalda Margarethe Prinzessin und Landgräfin von Hessen (born 6 July 1965) is a German fashion designer. She is the eldest child of Moritz von Hessen and Princess Tatiana of Sayn-Wittgenstein-Berleburg.

Mafalda first married Count Enrico Marone Cinzano on 8 July 1989, but they divorced soon after. The marriage was childless.[4]

Second, she married Carlo Galdo on 19 December 1991. They have two children together: Tatiana Galdo (born 20 January 1992) and Polissena Galdo (born 30 September 1993). The couple divorced in 1999.[4]

Third, Mafalda married Count Ferdinando Brachetti Peretti on 14 July 2000. They have two children together: Count Cosmo Brachetti Peretti (born 11 January 2000) and Count Briano Brachetti Peretti (born 16 April 2002).[4] They were divorced in 2014.[1]

Count Ferdinando Brachetti-Peretti is a wealthy Italian noble and oil businessman and the ex husband of Princess Mafalda of Hesse. His father is Count Aldo Brachetti-Peretti the head of their family company API Group. His brother Ugo Brachetti-Peretti is also a board member for UniCredit bank.

Four former Sal. Oppenheim senior bankers have been sentenced for embezzlement; one is going to jail. Risky investments that came to a head in 2009 almost spelled the end of what was once Europe's biggest private bank.

Three of Jannsen's ex-colleagues - former CEO Matthias Graf von Krockow, former head of investment banking Dieter Pfundt and bank heir Christopher von Oppenheim - received suspended sentences of between one year and 11 months and two years.

Prince Rainer Christoph Friedrich of Hesse is a close relative of the Windsors and a high authority within the Holy Roman royalty and nobility. Prince Ranier's father was a high level Nazi and Prince Ranier's uncles including a bisexual uncle were also a Nazis. Another uncle Prince Wolfgang worked at the Waburg private bank owned by the Jewish Warburg family. The Warburg family also worked with the Nazis and directly with Adolf Hitler. The Nazis were financed by Jews. The Hesses were all high level Nazi commanders and they also co-founded Commerzbank with the Jewish Warburgs. Clearly historians are lying about the Nazis since they had high level members who were known homosexuals and they literally worked with Jewish bankers.

Hessians (US: /ˈhɛʃənz/ or UK: /ˈhɛsiənz/[1]) were German soldiers who most notably served as auxiliaries to the British Army during the American Revolutionary War. [2]

Although characterized in American popular narratives as mercenaries, jurists of the time drew a distinction between auxiliaries and mercenaries: auxiliaries served their prince and were sent to the aid of another prince, while mercenaries served a foreign prince as individuals. [3] By this distinction, the troops which served in the American Revolution were auxiliaries.

About 30,000 Germans served in the Americas, and, after the war ended in 1783, some 17,313 returned to their German homelands. Of the 12,526 who did not return, about 7,700 had died. Some 1,200 were killed in action, and 6,354 died from illnesses or accidents, mostly the former.[31] Approximately 5,000 German troops, mainly press-ganged or conscripted in their countries of origin, settled in North America, either the United States or Canada.
